Luna CC closed on Labor Day

Luna Community College will be closed on Monday, Sept. 2 in observance of Labor Day.

The college will resume its regular schedule on Tuesday, Sept. 3.

In other college news, students are reminded that 8-week courses will begin on Monday, Oct. 14. The schedule can be viewed online and other classes will be added.

For more information please call either the LCC Registrars office or the ACCESS Center at 505/454-2596 or 505/454-5355.

Student government elections to be held

The Luna Community College Student Government election will be held from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. on Friday, Sept. 20 at the administration building. Elections will be held for president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer along with six senators.

Students who want to run, can pick up petition forms from LCC Student Government Advisors Amanda Ortiz or Dawna Ortega-Gallegos at the financial aid or allied health departments after Monday, Sept. 9. The petitions have to be returned by 5 p.m. on Friday, Sept. 13.

Students who are elected will receive a stipend for the 2013-14 academic year.

To be eligible to run for an executive post, a student must have a cumulative grade point average of 2.5 or higher; be registered as a full-time student; have a declared major and obtain a minimum of 25 signatures from currently enrolled students for nomination.

To be eligible to run for a senate seat, a student must have a cumulative grade point average of 2.0 or higher; be registered at least half time (six hours); have a declared major and obtain a minimum of 25 signatures from currently enrolled students for nomination.

Luna Community College students are all smiles recently as they anxiously start the fall semester. Pictured (l-r) are: Tomas Gutierrez, a graduate of Robertson High; Kenny Tarango, a graduate of West Las Vegas High; Leroy Romero, a graduate of West Las Vegas High and Ramon Martinez, a graduate of Robertson High. Gutierrez and Martinez are majoring in welding while Tarango and Romero are majoring in electrical wiring. Although the last day to register for the fall semester was Aug. 26, students should take note that 8-week courses will begin on Monday, Oct. 14.
