

The Luna Light

Luna
Community
College

"The People's College"

Mission Statement: "Creating Opportunities for You!"

Vision Statement: "New Mexico's Premier Community College: Preparing Students for Success"

Volume 4, Issue 7

February 28, 2014

Erin Gilland teaches human anatomy and physiology at Luna Community College.

One-on-one with LCC's Erin Gilland

The following is an interview with Luna Community College instructor Erin Gilland.

Tell us about your professional experience and educational background.

B.S. in zoology, minors in French and zoology, summa cum laude, University of Oklahoma ; M.A.T. (Master of Arts in Teaching), University of Alaska Southeast; second author of the article "Microhabitat Preferences and Spatial Distribution of the Vesper Rat, Nyctomys sumichrasti, in Colima, Mexico," published in the journal Mammalian Biology, June 2010; certified teacher of science, math, and performing arts, grades 6-12, by the N.M. PED.

Third year teaching human anatomy and physiology I and II at LCC; one year teaching integrated science, geography, and drama at Goldenview Middle School for Anchorage School District as a State of Alaska certified instructor; one year teaching biology and chemistry at West Anchorage High School as a student-teacher; one year substitute teaching for Anchorage School District.

To read the full article, see Monday's Luna Light

Luna Community College students Miranda Benally (far left), from Farmington and Lisa Cox from Albuquerque, wait for some popcorn from ACCESS Center Tutor Rachel Debuque during a Meet-N-Greet activity at the Student Services Building on Tuesday. The ACCESS Center's objective of this activity is for students to better identify who their tutors are. Also in photo are LCC Admission and Recruiting Director Moses Marquez and LCC Vice-President for Instruction Dr. Vidal Martinez.