LCC to host car show; money will be raised for student scholarships

Luna Community College will be having its 8th Annual Car Show from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Saturday, June 16, 2012 at the college.

A $20 entry fee is required per vehicle. Entries will be received until the day of the event. The first 100 paid entries will receive a commemorative t-shirt and all entries will qualify for door prize drawings. Entries will be received until the day of the event.

Money raised will go into the Automotive Technology Scholarship Fund. The intention are to give one or two $500 scholarships to a student or students that are interested in declaring collision repair or automotive technology as their major.

There will also be music, activities for children and food vendors at the family event.

“It will be a great, fun, family event,” said LCC Collision

Repair Instructor Anthony Baca. “Families need to come out and see the talent of car people in this community. There are a lot of mechanical and painting skills that our students and community have. This is a great way to spend time with your dad the day before Father’s Day. Last year we had 98 vehicles.

This year we’re looking at over 100; that’s our goal.”

The 8th Annual LCC Car Show is sponsored by the LCC Student Activities Office, LCC Foundation and LCC SkillsUSA.

For more information on the 8th LCC Car Show call Anthony Baca at 454-2591 or 429-0425 or Gene Sandoval at 454-2590.
