

The Luna Light

"The People's College"

Mission Statement: "Creating Opportunities for You!"

Vision Statement: "New Mexico's Premier Community College: Preparing Students for Success"

Volume 4, Issue 34

Oct. 17, 2014

Costume contest, haunted house set for Oct. 31 and Nov. 1 at LCC

Five student organizations involved in planning

If Luna Community College was looking for more unity in student entities, it got it as five student organizations are getting involved in a haunted house fundraiser that is set for Friday Oct. 31 and Saturday, Nov. 1. The LCC Haunted House Fundraiser will take place from 8 p.m. to 11 p.m. on both days. The event will be held at the Luna Community College Humanities Building.

According to Luna Community College Student Government Secretary Amberlynn Sena, these student organizations are working diligently planning the annual LCC Haunted House event.

"We have the Luna Community College Student Government, SkillsUSA Automotive Club, Student Nursing Association, STEM Club and the Psychology Club involved this year," said Sena. "All five organizations will split the money that will be raised."

Entry for the Luna Community College Haunted House is $5.

Last year's Luna Community College's Haunted House was commonly recognized as the best in Las Vegas as both students, staff and faculty worked productively to prepare for the event.

"We promise more of a scarier atmosphere this year," said Sena. "We were considered the best last year and it's going to give us more drive to make it better this year."

The college's student government is also sponsoring a costume contest that is scheduled from noon to 1 p.m. on Friday, Oct. 31 at the Luna Community College Multi-Purpose Education Center. Prizes will be given for first, second and third place.

To read the entire article, see Monday's Luna Light

Student Brandon Chavez of the STEM101 class fires his handmade and science enhanced potato cannon and uses math and science to calculate how powerful it is when fired.