

The Luna Light

“The People’s College”

Becoming The Premier Rural Community College in America

Volume 2, Issue 16

May 4, 2012

LCC Humanities expecting 35 graduates

The Luna Community College Humanities Department is expecting 35 graduates this fall, according to Director Shirley Marlow. As of the last count on Thursday afternoon, humanities had 35 petitions for graduation. They had eight in liberal arts, seven in human performances, two in mass media communications, three in general education certificates and 15 in criminal justice.

“Graduates should be very proud of their efforts, diligence and hard work,” said Marlow. “It is hoped that these potential students will bring with them a spirit of love for the subject and the motivation to learn as much as possible; sharing the learned information effectively with others.”

Marlow said that the majority of the students will transfer to four-year institutions. Although, some of them will be going directly to the work force.

The LCC Humanities Department consists of the following areas: Associate of Arts in Liberal Arts, Mass Media Communications, Criminal Justice, and Sports Performance. Certificate degrees include General Education and Criminal Justice.

Joe Pacheco to be recognized by Sec. Timothy Hale

Former Luna Community College employee and Vietnam Veteran Joe Pacheco will be presented with a Presidential Certificate during the 2012 LCC Graduation Ceremony.

The Presidential Certificate will be presented by New Mexico Cabinet Secretary of Veterans Services Timothy Hale. Former LCC President Samuel F. Vigil and LCC Board Secretary Abelino Montoya will also take part in the presentation.

LCC is looking into a pilot program that will help veterans evaluate their credentials which include work experience, education and military experience which will help them in employment opportunities.

Everyone is invited to an End-Of-Semester Barbeque
from noon to 2 p.m. on Friday, May 11 in front of the Humanities Department.

Luna Community College’s Cosmetology Instructor Connie Ortiz, pictured here with student Celerina Finnstad, is going back to work in the industry after the spring semester. Ortiz worked at LCC for 10 years. Ortiz said: “Luna Community College was good to me. I have learned a lot while working here and I will miss the students and staff. I met a lot of good people.”

End Of Semester

BBQ

Let's Celebrate!!

To a Successful school year and Congratulate

on Rehearsal Day

12:00p-2:00p

our 2012 LCC Graduates!

Friday, May 11, 2012