Actress Lora Martinez-Cunningham (middle with white t-shirt) works with Robertson and West Las Vegas High students during filming of a five minute music video based on the song “Don’t Stop Believin” Saturday at Robertson High. The purpose of this video is to provide a unique educational opportunity for Las Vegas high school juniors and seniors and college students. It is also to stimulate interest in Luna Community College’s new Film Technician Training Program.

LCC Summer Programs available for high school students, graduating seniors

Luna Community College is offering enhanced college credit summer programs for high school students and 2011 graduating seniors. The programs will provide free tuition for up to eight credit hours, books and fees. Students will also receive a $100 stipend upon successful completion of their courses with a grade of “C” or better. Enrollment for the programs will be on a first-come, first-serve basis.

The Student Academic Advancement Institute (SAAI) is available to high school students who will be classified a junior or senior next school year. Enrollment is available for 200 students.

The Future Leaders Program (formerly known as the Tech Prep Summer Program) is available to high school students who will be classified a junior or senior next school year and also for students who will be 2011 graduating seniors. This program will be offered under the LCC Department of Science, Math & Engineering Technology and will enroll 50 students.

More than 100 courses will be available in the following divisions: Business and Professional Studies, Science, Math & Engineering Technology, Mass Media Communications, Vocational Education, Humanities/General Education Core, Health Sciences, Education, and Developmental Studies.

Both programs are designed to enhance educational opportunities and help students achieve academic success and support their educational goals. Along with course enrollment, students will participate in academic advancement, leadership and college success seminars and other extracurricular activities.

All LCC entrance requirements apply to both summer programs and all course pre-requisites must be met. Applications are available at the high school counseling offices and at the LCC Concurrent/Dual Credit Office located in the Technology Building, Room 144.

For further information and applications, call 454-5377 or 1-800-588-7232 ext. 1075, 454-5374 or 1800-588-7232 ext. 1076 or 505-429-0508. The summer session begins June 6 and ends on July 29. Registration is ongoing through June 10.

Luna Community College's English Instructor William Howard gets book published

LCC English Composition Instructor Leland William Howard recently got a book published. The book title is Portrait of Betsy which is a memoir of the 17 years that Howard and Betsy were together beginning at a time he found her as a street dog in New Orleans in 1991. It is also about how Betsy restored his faith in God and people and how she taught him how to love. For more information on the book, call Howard 505/454-8106.

When Luna Community College English Composition Instructor Leland William Howard arrived in Las Vegas almost six years ago to pursue a master's degree in the English Department at New Mexico Highlands University, he had already lived several lives in climes as far distant as New York City, New Orleans, and Paris, pursuing occupations as varied as actor, singer, groundskeeper, secretary, police dispatcher, and the author of one published novel, Pirouettes Get No Applause in Goldengrove. In company with him was his then 15-year-old border collie mix, Betsy, about whom his third and most recent book, a memoir, Portrait of Betsy, is based.

The memoir concerns a man who has tried his luck in many areas, both geographic and creative, but always haunted by a dark past that has eluded his grasp despite forays into therapy and spiritual counseling. Despite his efforts, nothing works. A nervous breakdown has even led him into an unending five-year hell of poverty, homelessness, physical violence, and depression. And then, when life seems all but over, into his life walks a scrawny, virtually hairless New Orleans street dog who, it seems, is much of an outcast as himself. For 17 years, the spunky, exuberant, joyous, and people-loving Betsy is Jamie's teacher, guide, and best friend, drawing him out of low self-esteem, disappointment, guilt, and fear, and teaches him that life is always worth living, no matter how difficult one's trials can be, enabling a man who had forgotten how to love to love even more.

When Betsy passed away on May 8, 2008, two days before Howard earned his master's degree in English Literature from New Mexico Highlands University, the only way Mr. Howard could deal with the pain of the loss was, as he said, "to write, write, write, anything and everything that came to mind that could recapture everything that Betsy ever meant to me and still means to me."

Howard wrote without any intention of his notes becoming a memoir. However, over a period of two years, he had filled several yellow spiral notebooks with notes, and realized that the best way he could honor Betsy was to publish it as a memoir, with her as his co-author.

A number of beautiful photographs capturing Betsy's essence in places such as New Orleans, New York City, Provincetown, Cape Cod, and here in Las Vegas were selected with the generous help of Ms. Shila Shell and Dr. Jane Gorman.

In early summer Portrait of Betsy will figure as the centerpiece of an authorial book reading and signing (date and place of the event not set at the present) as a benefit for veterinary services for rescued animals under the auspices of the Animal Welfare Coalition. Guest speakers will include Maureen O'Brien, who has been, for the past four years, an ardent animal rescuer in the state of New Mexico, and Tina Holguin, the president of the Animal Welfare Coalition.

If anyone is interested in ordering a copy of the book before the event, they can contact the publisher, AuthorHouse at 1 (888) 519-5121, or Mr. Howard directly at (505) 454-8106.

"As Betsy herself was a stray on the streets of New Orleans," Howard observed, "she would want any proceeds from the sale of our book to go toward helping those pets, like herself, who seek only to love and be loved, and who, without human help, would be doomed to early deaths and the cruel ending of their earthly missions. It is my hope that this memoir will give hope to anyone who suffers from the demons of fear, guilt, and depression and to help them realize in their own lives that there is a way out of the darkness: constant and unconditional love."

LCC 2011 graduation set for Saturday, May 14

The wait is nearly over for 2011 Luna Community College graduates. Graduation is set for 10 a.m. on Saturday, May 14 on the LCC Campus.

Graduation practice is set for 2 p.m. on Friday, May 13. An end-of-the-year barbecue will take place from noon to 2 p.m. also on Friday.

Luna Community College President Dr. Pete Campos will be giving "words of wisdom" to graduates on Saturday.

Dr. Campos is completing his third year as president of the college.

Dr. Campos has been a New Mexico state senator since 1991. He is currently serving the counties of San Miguel, Guadalupe, Torrance, Santa Fe and Mora. Dr. Campos earned his doctoral degree in educational leadership from the University of New Mexico in 2003. He also has a master's degree in counseling from Highlands University and a bachelor's degree in economics and philosophy from UNM. Dr. Campos is a 1971 graduate of Santa Rosa High. During his tenure at Luna Community College, Dr. Campos' administration has added several new programs and has emphasized student success. The college has also kept tuition affordable for students while not furloughing any employees. His ambitious agenda also consists of Luna Community College helping in the areas of health care and economic development.
