Students graduate simultaneously from high school and Luna

By Patricia Romero/LCC Dual Credit Director

On May 8, Luna Community College had two high school students earn their General Education Certificates. The General Education Certificate is a 36-credit hour certificate under the 2006-2009 Catalog which primarily comprises of the General Education Core Curriculum. The certificate in general education is tailored for students with an interest in a broad range of courses that would be helpful in a well rounded liberal education. Additionally, the certificate program will give the student the opportunity to sample various disciplines to determine their educational futures.

The 2010 high school students who simultaneously earned both their high school diploma and Luna Community College certificate are Sarah Bustos of West Las Vegas High and Kori Archuleta of Pecos High. The students through CE/DC advisement declare an educational path; the educational path is continuously monitored and tailored to meet each individuals need. Students are committed to their educational path and consistently attend class.

LCC has had many students who have earned numerous credit hours at LCC and remained at LCC to complete their associates’ degrees or transfer to the post-secondary institution of their choice. Joleen Quintana was a 2008 graduate of Pecos High and Luna Community College. Quintana received her General Education Certificate in May, 2008 from LCC. Quintana graduated from the University of New Mexico in May with a bachelor’s degree in criminology and a minor in psychology. Quintana plans to apply to UNM Law School. The credits Quintana took at LCC did transfer to UNM and she did not lose out on any credit.

Benny Gallegos, a 2007 graduate from West Las Vegas High, also participated in the LCC CE/DC program and was accepted into the LCC nursing program and earned his LPN certificate in May, 2008 and his RN in May, 2009 at the age of 20. Mr. Gallegos is employed as an RN in Santa Fe. Gallegos stated: “If it wasn’t for the LCC CE/DC program, I

Conni Reichert says that students, faculty and staff are inspirational and dedicated

Name: Conni Reichert

Position: Director Allied Health Sciences

How many years at LCC (what year did you start)? Part time in 1999, full-time 2000. I started as nursing faculty and in September 2006 became director of the department.

Favorite food and why? I'd die for caramel apples.

Favorite hobby and why? I wouldn't want to live if I couldn't read. I have an eclectic interest in many types but love books set in Africa or Asia. I probably read on average a novel/book a week. It is my way of winding down at the end of the day.

Favorite TV show and why? I don't watch TV to speak of except news. I do love old reruns of "I Love Lucy." They make me laugh.

Where would you like to see yourself five years from now? I would like to be caught up. I always have page-long lists of things I need to get done. I see myself as still being part of LCC working in a department with all nationally accredited programs.

that are so inspirational and dedicated to our mission in health sciences of serving others. Many people touch my life.

What do you like least about LCC and what would you offer as a solution? I would like to see both faculty and students excited about education. Education is such a gift that many just take for granted and therefore faculty as well as students don't reach the potential for learning, creating, discussing, etc. Finding solutions to the myriad of today's problems worldwide will come from us that light the spark of curiosity for learning. For faculty and staff, our roles are vital. We are not employed just to have a job. And for students, we are not learning just to get a degree. We have greater ambitions: that of service to one another and to our world.

What is your greatest strength? I feel that I am a team player or at least try to be.

What do you like best about LCC? The students and the faculty/staff that I work with

Fundamental questions for faculty on student learning

1. How are your stated student learning outcomes appropriate to your mission, programs, degrees, and students?
2. What evidence do you have that students achieve your stated learning outcomes?
3. In what ways do you analyze and use evidence of student learning?
4. How do you ensure shared responsibility for student learning and for assessment of student learning?
5. How do you evaluate and improve the effectiveness of your efforts to assess and improve student learning?
6. In what ways do you inform the public and other stakeholders about what and how well your students are learning?

Santa Rosa and aquaculture

Aquaculture (AG115) students at Santa Rosa High School had two field trips last month. They spent a day observing and helping the New Mexico Department of Game and Fish during their annual walleye spawn at Santa Rosa Lake. Walleye were captured and brought to the shore where students got some hands-on experience collecting walleye milt and eggs. Fertilized eggs were then taken to Rock Lake Hatchery.

A follow-up field trip was later taken to the Hatchery, where students were given the opportunity to see how the eggs are processed and to see the resulting fry that are hatched. Rock Lake Hatchery supplies the fry to lakes throughout New Mexico. The students also got a comprehensive tour of the cold water and warm water components of the hatchery.

LCC Springer Satellite meeting

On April 20, a meeting was held at Luna Community College in Las Vegas between Dr. Pete Campos, Mayor of Springer Danny J. Cruz, and Springer area LCC Board member David Guterrez. The focus of the meeting was to develop a working strategy for the Springer satellite campus. The following initial strategies and goals were developed as a working model:

1) Recruitment and Promotion – All parties were in agreement that a more aggressive and comprehensive recruitment and promotional campaign needs to be developed. By completing a detailed written plan, we will create a consistent and effective guide for all of the appropriate management personnel to follow. It was deemed critical to work with local area school systems toward serving high school students who wish to concurrently work on their post-secondary goals. By improving recruitment we are helping to reach the mission of LCC and working toward providing our community with comprehensive post-secondary academic programs.

2) Vocational Programming – While LCC-Springer offers a variety of courses that provide recreational training it is important to provide specific courses that will enable students to complete certificates and degrees, thereby enhancing their chances for gaining and maintaining employment. This means offering a logical progression of courses to serve as precursors to programs offered at the main campus, and eliminating any classes which do not lead to a certification/degree. An example would be the nursing program, whereby some or all of the prerequisites could be done at the satellite or online to then be completed at the main campus. Further review and study including public hearings would be done to determine which programs would be most requested and necessary.

One tool that Springer Councilor Gillespie suggested may be helpful to consider using in helping us determine programming, could be New Mexico Career Clusters at www.careerclusters.org. A public meeting will be held in Springer in July to gather public input on this particular item, with dates, times, and location to be announced.

3) On-the-Job Training & Job Placement – As a final and intertwining and critical component for success at LCC-Springer, every student would be assigned a counselor upon recruitment to assist with applications, grants, tutoring, mentoring, resume and job placement opportunities. Students could also be placed in program-related jobs for experiential, On-the-Job Training, giving them opportunities to earn money while progressing through their program of choice. For example, a Springer LCC student who wishes to complete the nursing program could be placed for part time, on the job training at a hospital, clinic, nursing home, etc. while completing the nursing prerequisites, thus being well prepared upon arrival at the main campus to complete the remainder of the program. Next steps would include holding a public meeting in Springer, submission of the written plan for approval by Dr. Campos and the LCC Board, followed by plan implementation. A continuous review and revision component will also be included.

LCC ABE Program is a life-changer

The Adult Basic Education Program is a life-changer. The ABE Program at Luna Community College along with other programs around the state has changed the lives of so many. Many adult students arrive at a program hoping to improve their English language and literacy skills, wanting to earn a GED, striving to achieve a college degree, and finally hoping to acquire a more satisfying career and a better paying job.

ABE Programs are making amazing gains in all these areas which has led to a better quality of life for those students who are willing to take up the challenge. In 2009, New Mexico ABE Programs served 23,000 students. The return on investment for 2008-09 was nearly $37 million: $43,383,360 was the income from gainful employment, improved earning potential of GED students, and students leaving public assistance minus the state and federal budget of $6,566,900.

According to the New Mexico Adult Education Association (NMAEA), 2100 ABE students graduated in 2008-09; more than 1000 students registered for college courses, and more than 1200 out of work students entered the labor force. What an effective and affordable way to change a person's life!

As of the month of May, 41 students have acquired their GED'S at LCC. Many of these students were simultaneously attending college classes while preparing for their GED. We are very proud of our many graduates because many of these students are continuing with their education by committing themselves to a four-year degree, to vocational training, or to career training.

President Obama has stated: "But whatever the training may be, every American will need to get more than a high school diploma. And dropping out of high school is no longer an option. It's not just quitting on yourself, it's quitting on your country – and this country needs and values the talents of every American."

That is why the ABE Program at LCC will continue to provide the support necessary to adult learners, who have not completed a twelfth-grade education and are not enrolled in a high school, to complete their GED and to achieve their goals. "By 2020, America will once again have the highest proportion of college graduates in the world," said President Obama—Geraldine Romero.

would still be in school. The CE/DC program did speed up the process for me. It is a great program."

Alma Sanchez, of West Las Vegas High, graduated on May 22, a year earlier than she was originally scheduled. Alma has indicated that the LCC dual credit program was a great opportunity and was a "fast track to her career." Sanchez also indicated that the transferability of courses from LCC to any two-year college or four-year university is another benefit of the program.

LCC has two programs for high school students for Summer 2010. The Student Academic Advancement Institute is available for upcoming juniors and seniors for the 2010-2011 academic year. The Tech Prep Program is available for upcoming juniors and seniors for the 2010-2011 academic year and 2010 graduates. There are community education classes, non-credit courses, available for students' not classified juniors and seniors for the 2010-2011 academic year.

The SAAI programs purchases textbooks for students and covers distance learning fees, access codes and student ID's for students. Students will be provided with an college success mentor and will participate in seminars which will provide valuable information and resources for students. At the end of the summer session and completion of summer courses, students will be eligible for a $150 stipend to be used at their discretion.

A quality opportunity with great incentives is provided to students. Please call Patricia Romero at 505-454-5377 or Janice Encinias at 505-454-5377, for more information.

THE COMPETITIVE EDGE

One-on-one with Ron Gonzales

The following is an interview with Ron Gonzales who is overseeing both the softball and baseball program at Luna Community College

Have you already met with the student-athletes and coaches and if you did what did you tell them?

I have had the opportunity to meet with the head coaches and staff to discuss the goals and objectives of the program. With the main goal being to provide an environment that promotes personal, academic, athletic, and social development with the strong emphasis on academic achievement.

What are some of your academic goals for your student-athletes?

In discussing this with the coaches we share the vision that the LCC student-athletes not only excel in their sports career but also excel in their academic studies so that they achieve academic recognition through the NJCAA achievement programs as well as here at LCC. The main goal is to insure that LCC athletes are prepared in their academic studies to either continue the educational quest or be prepared to enter their chosen profession.

Would you still like to see the majority of your student-athletes from New Mexico?

I would still like to see this continue. This is how the program was started and I personally feel that New Mexico athletes are sometimes overlooked by larger programs. This also allows the opportunity for some of these athletes to continue their higher education to attain their degrees where otherwise they might not be afforded the opportunity.

Have you looked into the possibility of having more home games?

We are currently looking at this, but with LCC athletics competing as an independent program in the NJCAA and not being a member of a certain region, LCC has to plan its schedules according to availability of other programs to schedule games. I have asked the coaches that when scheduling games that this be a priority. In the future, I would like to see LCC Athletics become a member of a region, which in turn, would allow for more scheduling opportunities.

Would you like to see your student-athletes more visible in the community? If so, what do you have planned?

The athletic department is currently developing a plan on how to make LCC athletes more visible in the community with meet and greets, community service events, public school events and other events in the communities.

What are your long term goals for the athletic department?

My long term goals whether I am interim director or not for this program is to help develop a strong program not only for the existing sports that are now at Luna but also any other sports that may come in the future. I look at this as part of the big picture for Luna

Community College to grow.

Have you looked into the possibility of one day having a true home-field near the Luna Community College Campus?

We have been looking at this possibility for sometime now and have established a partnership with another agency and will be looking for funding for this to happen.

What are your short term goals for the athletic department?

To bring stability and accountability to the program through the development of goals and objectives for the program, this will allow our student athletes to excel in academic careers as well as their athletic careers. The athletic department is currently finalizing the Student-Athlete Handbook to present to the President and the Board of Trustees for review and approval.

What is in store to get the college to buy into the athletic program?

I will be asking the coaches and student-athletes to become more involved in other activities and organizations on campus, but I also ask for help from faculty, staff, and administration to support these students-athletes as they come to us for assistance.

Luna Community College forms “Pathways to Re-Accreditation” Committee

By: Dr. Andrew Feldman – Academic Director

Department of Science, Math, & Engineering Technology

All colleges and universities are accredited by one or more national organizations in general and for some specific programs of study. Overall, Luna Community College is accredited by the North Central Association – Higher Learning Commission (NCA-HLC). Accreditation runs on a ten-year cycle and LCC is up for re-accreditation in 2014. In addition to re-accreditation, LCC is also very interested in improving the product that we deliver – the student’s education. To address the re-accreditation process and to improve student learning, LCC has formed the “Pathways to Re-Accreditation” committee that will be working over the next several years in a number of focus areas.

Education is the most important thing that a person can get in their lifetime; it opens doors to success. At LCC, we are dependant on our customers – you the student and we want to provide you with the best education possible so that you can succeed. All of the departments at the college are looking at instructors and curriculum and making changes to improve the quality of education. In the process we are also creating professional learning communities to help students succeed. For example the ACCESS Center has a general student tutoring lab service and some departments have created learning/tutoring labs that focus on a specific area of study. We are striving to have customers that are not simply satisfied, but delighted with the services and education they receive from LCC.

In order to make improvements in education and address the issues that we face during the re-accreditation process we are developing what is known as a “culture of assessment” at LCC. As a student you may regard assessment as taking quizzes and tests, doing homework and research papers. However, to an educator these are assessment tools. For faculty and administration assessment is a process where the overall goal is to gauge student learning (or lack thereof) and make improvements to instruction and curriculum for the benefit of the student. This task not only falls to the “Pathway to Re-Accreditation” committee but to all faculty and administration at LCC.

The members of the “Pathways to Re-accreditation” committee include: Lawrence Martinez, Louise Portillos, Eloy Garcia, Michael Adams, Moses Marquez, Donna Flores, Kayleen Encinias, Elaine Ortega, Wanda Martinez, Adrienne O’Brien, Gary Martinez, Debbie Trujillo, Cindy Armijo, Lawrence Quintana, Rand Kennedy, Conni Reichert, Renee Garcia, Harry Anderson, Sherry Goodyear, Patricia Romero, Francisco Romero, Pete Manthei, Dr. Vidal Martinez and Dr. Andrew Feldman – Chairman.

As a committee undertaking the process of institutional evaluation we will be addressing the following five criteria:

- 1) Mission and Integrity – the organization operates with integrity to ensure the fulfillment of its mission through structures and processes that involve the board, administration, faculty, staff and students.
- 2) Preparing for the Future – the organization’s allocation of resources and its processes for evaluation and planning demonstrate its capacity to fulfill its mission, improve the quality of its education, and respond to future challenges and opportunities.
- 3) Student Learning and Effective Teaching – the organization provides evidence of student learning and teaching effectiveness that demonstrates it is fulfilling its educational mission.
- 4) Acquisition, Discovery, and Application of Knowledge – the organization promotes a life of learning for its faculty, administration, staff, and students by fostering and supporting inquiry, creativity, practice, and social responsibility in ways consistent with its mission.
- 5) Engagement and Service – as called for by its mission, the organization identifies its constituencies and serves them in ways both value.

Taking a scrutinizing look at one’s self in the mirror is often difficult, but is worth the effort. As LCC works to improve the education and campus life that we provide to our customers we start by looking into the mirror. The benefactor’s of this exercise include not only the students, but the administration, faculty, staff, and the community.
