LCC Foundation Golf Tournament makes nearly $50,000; net proceeds to student scholarships

The Luna Community College Golf Tournament made nearly $50,000. The net proceeds are earmarked for student scholarships. The LCC Title V grant will match that money as well.

The tournament, which had a record-number 24 teams, was played Saturday at Pendaries Golf Course.

“I want to thank everyone who helped raise this money,” said Tournament Co-Director Ernesto Salazar. “It was a total team effort from everyone involved. This was a great day for Luna Community College and Title V.”

The Electric Horseman Inc. took first in gross score. The team consisted of Eddie Trujillo, Dennis Lucero, Randall Armijo and Dwayne Craig.

Best Western Hotel and Suites took first in net score. Playing on this team were Gavino Archuleta, Shellie Broyles and Jim Diesler.

For a total breakdown of the monies raised, see future editions of The Luna Light. For more pictures, see page 3.

Gratitude beyond words

By Dr. Pete Campos
LCC President

The golf tournament sponsored by the Luna Community College Foundation held this past Saturday was an overwhelming success. In fact, course officials stated this was the most successful Foundation Tournament yet!

During the last several months as I observed plans being developed for the annual Foundation golf tournament, potential team and sponsor contacts being made, prizes being gathered, people working together and finally, the huge turn out; enormous gratitude - that goes beyond words - filled my heart.

I am thankful for our Luna Family volunteering their precious time and donating their hard earned money towards this successful event. I am still in awe for the generosity shared by the Foundation's private and public partners – business persons, retirees, government employees and students – in general, hard working people who unselfishly gave funds that will be used to help students attend Luna Community College. That's right – the proceeds, in the form of scholarships, from this golf tournament are for students!

While I wish it were possible to name every person who supported this LCC Foundation golf tournament in one way or another, I would miss someone and that would never be my intent. So, to each of you who gave in one way or another, always hold in your mind the memory that you supported the educational endeavors of students, who in many situations, could not afford to attend college if it weren't for you.

Please accept – from deep within my soul – gratitude and satisfaction for a job well done! Luna Community College students truly are the benefactors.

Luna Community College President Dr. Pete Campos was one of several dozen participants that competed in Saturday's LCC Foundation Tournament. LCC students will benefit from Saturday's successful tournament.

Eagle Nest Chamber better than ever

By Melissa Gold

The Eagle Nest Chamber of Commerce has moved into a beautiful new building and is looking forward to fostering growth in membership. The Eagle Nest Chamber of Commerce and The Enchanted Gateway Museum are sharing the building located at the north end of the main street and have already seen an increase in foot traffic and visitors to the new building. The new building is highly visible from the main street and offers ample parking and an attractive new look for visitors. The chamber moved to the new location on April 12, after occupying a small office space at a local motel.

The new Eagle Nest Chamber of Commerce is located in a more visible area.

The chamber is in their busy months right now and has enjoyed steady flow of tourists walking into the new museum and chamber. The chamber sees people from all over the country, but most visitors come from Texas, Oklahoma and are looking to get out of the heat and also for the beautiful scenery that encompasses Eagle Nest.

The Village of Eagle Nest serves as the eastern gateway to the enchanted circle and is nestled among the Sangre de Cristo Mountains. It's a beautiful town with a population of around 300 locals serving visitors year round to some of the best fishing, hunting and hiking trails anywhere.

Eagle Nest has been making great strides in their efforts of economic development for the town. The main street, which is less than a mile long, has been newly renovated with sidewalks and antique street lamps. The Eagle Nest Lake is now considered a state park and has undergone a major makeover with new docks and a welcome center. The Chamber of Commerce has been active in the community and with the new building that is shared with the museum; the chamber has set goals of continued growth and prosperity for the town of Eagle Nest.

The Eagle Nest Chamber is dedicated to working towards promoting and strengthening the success of small businesses through community leadership and resource development. They work closely with the Luna Community College Small Business Development Center to help with direct technical assistance for the small businesses in Eagle Nest. The partnership is proved to be beneficial to both entities and to the village of Eagle Nest. The small businesses now have somewhere to go where they can meet with professionals on all their small business needs. The Eagle Nest Chamber also works closely with the other chambers in their area, such as Red River, Cimarron and Angel Fire to help promote each other and local events coming up.

The Eagle Nest Chamber of Commerce and the Village of Eagle Nest has been showing that even with the national economy in hard times there is still room for growth and prosperity in small town, America.

Support Tobacco Use Policy

I am asking for your support in promoting the Tobacco Use Policy. One of the challenges I have faced in trying to address the issue with students is that they point out a faculty or staff member walking by smoking or they have seen them smoking outside the designated areas.

I understand it will take some time for everyone to get used to the new policy, and we will continue to work with it, but we shouldn't set up for failure from the beginning. The policy is a health benefit for both the tobacco user and the non-user. I hope as a team, we can make this policy a success.

Another issue is signage, we are working diligently to address this issue, and we hope to have signs posted at every building entrance.

Thank you for your cooperation on the matter.
