

How to register for classes

Registration for the 2022 spring semester runs from Monday, Nov. 15 through Tuesday, Jan. 25. All Luna campuses are now open.

If you are a first-year student at Luna, you can apply online at Apply Now or contact the admissions office via telephone, e-mail or in person and complete the admissions process. After you have been admitted, please contact the Student Success Center, also via telephone, e-mail or in person, for registration and the Accuplacer. Telephone numbers are listed below.

If you are a returning student, you can register online through your portal.

For advisement about the courses to take in your program, please contact the advisor in your field of study.

If you have declared a major, please call your program advisor. If you have not declared a major, are a transfer student or are a first-time freshman, please contact the Student Success Center. No answer? Leave a clear message with your name and telephone number. An advisor may be busy assisting another student but will return your call as soon as possible. You may also visit with them in person on campus.
