

How to register for classes

Registration for Spring 2021 begins Monday, Nov. 16. Due to campus access restrictions, all registration and registration-related business will be handled remotely.

If you are a first-year student at Luna, you must first contact the admissions office via telephone or e-mail. After this, you will have to contact the Student Success Center, also via telephone or e-mail, for registration and the ACCUPLACER. Telephone numbers are listed below.

If you are a returning student, you can register online through your portal.

For advisement about the courses to take in your program, please contact the advisor in your field of study.

If you have declared a major, please call your program advisor. If you have not declared a major, are a transfer student or are a first-time freshman, please contact the Student Success Center. No answer? Leave a clear message with your name and telephone number. An advisor may be busy assisting another student but will return your call as soon as possible.
