LCC Ninth Annual Hair Show set for Thursday, April 18

Luna Community College will have its Ninth Annual Hair Show on Thursday, April 18 at the Rough Rider Grill.

Two shows are scheduled on that day. The first show is scheduled from noon to 1 p.m. with the second taking place from 5:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. Both shows are free and open to the public.

Throughout the show, LCC cosmetology students will showcase their coloring, cutting, and styling by using models to feature their talents. Over 30 models are scheduled to participate in the event.

“Our students do a wonderful job every year,” said LCC Cosmetology Instructor Germaine Sandoval. “Everyone looks forward to this event. We want to thank everyone for all their cooperation throughout the years.”

The theme for this year’s event is “Candy Land” with the models executing their fashionable looks. LCC cosmetology students work on models’ hair, nails and make-up for Thursday’s shows.

In Thursday’s 5:30 p.m. show, individuals will have their hair cut on stage and have it donated to Locks of Love. Locks of Love is a Palm Springs-based national charity that takes donated human hair tied into ponytails or braided hair and makes it into special hairpieces for financially disadvantaged children who have lost their hair because of medical conditions.

For more information, call Sandoval at 505-454-5345.

These file photos show the variety of hair styles that Luna Community Colleges students have used over the years . This year’s theme is Candy Land. Admission is free to both shows on Thursday.
