Luna Community College Accelerate students to attend workshop in Taos

Luna Community College Accelerate students will be attending a workshop on Friday, Oct. 4 in Taos. Luna Community College will be joined by students from six other northern New Mexico institutions of higher education. The workshop will take place at the Taos Country Club.

The workshop, entitled "Unleashing Your Super Powers" will help students identify their unique strengths, hone their networking abilities, and build professional readiness skills.

The Accelerate Technical Training and Job Placement Program will bring 80 students together for a four hour workshop. Students will work with university administrators, business professionals, and career technical advisors to build confidence in identifying and communicating their strengths which will assist them in their academic and professional endeavors.

The workshop is intended to help students be more effective in college, be better communicators, and acquire an edge as they launch their careers. The knowledge students take from this workshop will be further developed in the spring when Accelerate provides strengths-based leadership training for students in the program.

"I am curious and excited to discover my leadership strengths during this event," said LCC Drafting Technology LCC student Julian Torres.

For additional information on Accelerate, please contact Diane Moore at 505/454-5303 or by email at dmoore@luna.edu. Her office is located at the LCC Administration Building, room 107.
