

Luna Community College to host “La Noche de Las Luminarias” on Dec. 2

Continuing more than a decade-long tradition, Luna Community College will host “La Noche de las Luminarias” from 6 to 9 p.m. on Saturday, Dec. 2.

The public will get to view 4,000 luminarias as well as many lights around campus. “La Noche de las Luminarias” is designed for motorists to tour the campus with a pre-determined route beginning at the top gates.

Luna Community College works in conjunction with the Las Vegas Light Parade, which will also take place that evening, giving community members the opportunity to see both events.

“La Noche de las Luminarias” is a free event, however, Luna Community College will be raising money for Los Niños Elementary student

Javier Malo who has been diagnosed with leukemia. Donations will be taken at the top gate entrance at Luna Community College. In addition, Luna Community College’s Phi Theta Kappa Chapter is asking for non-perishable food items that will be distributed to several local non-profit organizations throughout the community.

Luna Community College is located at 366 Luna Dr., north of Hot Springs Blvd.

Approximately 4,000 luminarias will be on display at the Luna Community College campus on Saturday, Dec. 2 for the public to view.
