

Lady Rough Riders

Luna
Community College

“Creating Opportunities for You!”

#LCCmatters

Lady Rough Riders Upset Adams St. JV, 8-7 on the Road

The Luna Community College Lady Rough Riders had a simple formula entering their game with the Adams St. Junior Varsity team on the road on Wednesday, March 28 - they went, they saw, they conquered.

The Lady Rough Riders, a member of the National Junior College Athletic Association, upset Adams St., who is a Division II member of the National Collegiate Athletic Association, 8-7 in the first game of a doubleheader. Down 3-2 after one inning, the Lady Rough Riders rallied to score two runs in the third, two in the fifth, and two in the seventh to rally for the win. Adams State was not going away easy. After being held scoreless for five innings, they scored an impressive four runs in the bottom of the seventh to make the game interesting, if not exciting. A rundown at home plate by the Lady Rough Riders ended the game.

“You can’t coach effort and they gave great effort,” says Luna Interim Coach Mark Mattox. Victoria Valtierra, a freshman from El Paso, was the winning pitcher. Taylor Quintana, also a freshman from El Paso got the save. The big hit of the day came from sophomore Sarah Rocha who hit a home run in the fourth inning nabbing two RBI. The Lady Rough Riders also had a solid defensive performance to preserve the win. Luna lost the second game 12-7.