

Santa Rosa Satellite to have open house for new woodshop on Friday, Jan. 12

Luna Community College's Santa Rosa Satellite will be having an open house for its new woodshop from 2 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. on Friday, Jan. 12. The public is invited to attend.

"This is a wonderful opportunity to expand our trades program to students and community members in partnership with the Santa Rosa School District," said Luna Community College Interim President Ricky Serna. "I invite everybody to come and see what the new shop will offer."

The new woodshop is located across the street from the Luna Community College Santa Rosa Satellite. The address of the new woodshop is 133 South Fourth St.

The new woodshop will offer an opportunity for dual credit, for credit and community education courses.

"This new woodshop will offer more space and new equipment to safely accommodate more students," said Luna Community College Santa Rosa Satellite Director Joseph Salas.

Currently there are two evening woodshop classes

Luna Community College's Santa Rosa Satellite will have a new woodshop located at the old Square Deal Food Mart.

being offered for the spring semester. They will be offered from 5 p.m. to 9 p.m. on Wednesdays and Thursdays. Classes for the spring semester begin on Tuesday, Jan. 16. The last day to register for spring classes is Tuesday, Jan. 23.

Among the speakers for the open house include Luna Community College Interim President Ricky Serna, Luna Community College Santa Rosa Satellite Director Joseph Salas, Luna Community College Board of Trustee Severiano Sisneros, and Santa Rosa Consolidated Schools Superintendent Richard Perea.

Refreshments will be served. For more information on the open house, call Salas at 575/472-1400.