

LUNA COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Community Education – Spring 2014

GRANT WRITING 101

Sec. 1 – WED March 26 6-8 pm

Sec. 2 – WED April 30 6-8 pm

Location: Main Campus, Business Studies 106

Instructor: CAROL A. HORWITZ, Ph. D

Cost: $50

Non-profit organizations rely on grants to fund their work. Learn about the different types of funders, including federal agencies and foundations. Learn the components of a “typical” grant application and identify title, eligibility, deadlines, contact information, and grant announcement number. Also, learn about the requirements for both federal and foundation applications; learn registration requirements specific to federal grants: DUNS number, Employee Identification number, System for Award Management (SAM) registration.

Over a three-year period, Carol Horwitz wrote over three million dollars in successful applications for the City of Santa Fe. To register, call LCC Community Education Office @ 454-5311. A minimum of six students is required for each section.
