

LCC ACADEMIC SNAPSHOT

Luna Community College — Office of the Vice President of Instruction — Dr. Sharon Lalla

November/December 2018

Thank you!

Thank you Donnie Atkins for your contribution to the Welding Program. Donnie has prepared 165 students to earn AWS certifications during his tenure at LCC. We will miss you Donnie.

STEM Club provides 60 Thanksgiving meals to students and community members.

News Bites

- School of Business Instructors Leticia Griego and Brenda Wagoner complete Applying the Quality Matters Rubric workshop.
- Paint training hosted by Collision Repair, NAPA, and Martin Senour, Nov. 13-14.
- First set of general education core courses submitted to NMHED for certification.
- Chef Amanda Medina, SugarBomb Bake Shoppe owner, is guest speaker in the BAKE 102 class.
- Puente Juntos: A Reflection & Collection* of work by students from the English Summer Bridge Program will be self-published this week. Thank you to Roybal- Mack & Cordova Law for sponsoring the publication of this book for our summer students.
- Luna links up with local businesses to form partnerships on November 14
- Jason Killian, Criminal Justice Instructor, provides Mock Trial for students in CJ111.
- Fifteen students receive their AWS (American Welding Society) certification this month.
- Nurse Advisory Board meeting to be held at Highlands on December 5.
- The Culinary Arts Club provides a lunch menu at the Rough Rider grill on various Fridays.
- Academic departments work with Marketing to develop new department and program brochures.
- Brenda Ortega attends Early Learning Advisory Council meeting and the NMPED Future Educator Preparation Summit in November.
- Adult Education(AE) renamed to “College & Career Readiness Institute.” New adult education services will begin at Anton Chico Spring 2019.

Farolitos at LCC after Las Vegas light parade, December 8, 2019

Happy Holidays

Upcoming

- Course Learning Assessment Presentations during Faculty In-Service next week
- Holiday Potluck December 12
- LCC Fact Book coming soon
- HLC report due February 15, 2019
- .HLC Visit March 25-27, 2019
- STEM Club coat drive is on-going through early January