Evening classes (5 p.m. or later) will have their final exams the last week of class during their last regular class session. Any classes meeting only once each week, as well as one credit hour classes, short-term and weekend classes, should also have final exams during their last regular class session.

The length of the examination depends on the number of credit hours of the course. One hour of exam time is allotted for each credit hour, up to three hours. No exam may be scheduled for more than three hours.

Deviations from this schedule and conflicts must be addressed by the Office of the VP for Instruction and Student Services.
