Luna students and employees enjoy a barbeque sponsored by the Luna Student Senate and Office of Campus Life on Tuesday, April 18. Among the events was a hopping hunt where several individuals participated. Several prizes were given as well.

KRQE features Luna baseball team

KRQE featured the Luna baseball team during a telecast on Tuesday, April 18. For the first time in team history, the Rough Riders sit in first place in the Region 9 South Division standings.

Luna introduced baseball in 2006.

The Luna baseball team took over first place in the Region 9 South Baseball standings after defeating Trinidad State 8-2, 11-1 and 13-8 at home over the weekend.

The Rough Riders are 13-14 in conference play; Trinidad State (12-14), Otero College (11-16) and Lamar Community College (9-18) are second, third and fourth in the standings, respectively. The Rough Riders are scheduled to play Lamar Community College on the road this weekend.

Luna will play their last home games next weekend at Cleveland High School.

Luna Health Fair a success!

Nearly 100 individuals and 20 agencies participated in Luna's Strong Health and Wellness Fair on Wednesday, April 12 at the Gerald Ortega Wellness Center. Luna would like to thank all the agencies and individuals who participated in the event. Luna would also like to thank all the agencies that donated door prizes.

Luna Strong mural contest winner Alex Allington works on a mural in the Student Services Building. The mural contest is part of the Building Rough Rider Resilience grant. The purpose of the mural is to remind Luna of the resilience of the community and the strength that can come from adversity. Luna wants the mural to be a sign of hope in times of future struggles.
