INSTRUCTIONS

1. Upon employment with an NMERB covered entity, this completed form must be returned to the NMERB.
2. Form must be filled out using black or blue ink only. Your beneficiary designation request will be rejected if the NMERB receives a copy, email, or fax of the form, and/or if the form contains white-out.
3. If you fail to submit a valid beneficiary designation form, any benefits payable upon your death will be paid to your surviving spouse or domestic partner, or if none, in a one-time lump sum payment to your estate. Proof of marital status or domestic partnership is required.
4. If you are married and designating someone other than your spouse, the Spousal Consent portion of the form must be signed by your spouse in the presence of a Notary Public. Failure to do so will result in an incomplete and returned form.
5. Option B Coverage Beneficiary: If you are vested (five or more years of earned service credit) and die before your retirement, your named beneficiary may select either a monthly lifetime benefit (annuity) or a one-time lump sum payment. If you die prior to having earned five years of service credit, your named beneficiary will receive a one-time lump sum payment.
You can name only one beneficiary for Option B Coverage, as described in §22-11-29 (F) NMSA 1978. Your request will be rejected if you name more than one beneficiary for this option.
6. No Option B Coverage Beneficiary(ies): If you reject Option B Coverage, as described in §22-11-29 (F) NMSA 1978, and die before your retirement, your named beneficiary(ies) will receive a one-time lump sum payment. If you have named multiple beneficiaries and no percentage is indicated, the proceeds will be split evenly among those named beneficiaries.
7. You can change your beneficiary(ies) and Option B coverage any time before your retirement. If you are currently receiving a disability pension benefit, once you reach age 60, your plan status changes to “retired” and you must choose your retirement pension option.
8. In the event of a divorce it is important that you review your existing beneficiary designation to ensure that your desired beneficiary(ies) are named. A divorce does not automatically remove your former spouse as your plan beneficiary. Fill out and submit a new Beneficiary Designation form to make your desired changes.
Beneficiary selections are subject to any court orders regarding the division of the community property portion of your retirement benefit due to divorce. Provide the NMERB with a divorce decree if you divorce at any point during your NMERB participation.
9. If you have never earned prior NMERB service and you complete this Beneficiary Designation and are not reported by any NMERB covered employer within 90 days, this form will be void and will be returned to you.
10. Please keep a copy of this beneficiary designation for your records.
