Students who fail to meet the standards of Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) have the option to submit an appeal if academic deficiencies were a result of an extenuating circumstance. The appeal decision will depend on the nature of the extenuating circumstances, the quality of the documentation provided, and how well the student has displayed the ability to progress towards program completion within the remaining allowed timeframe. Students will be notified of the appeal decision in writing. The decision of the appeal committee is FINAL. The committee WILL NOT review incomplete appeals that are lacking a statement or necessary supporting documentation

ACADEMIC PROGRESS – Appeal for reinstatement of financial aid due to poor academic progress as outlined in the Financial Aid Satisfactory Academic Progress Policy.

PLEASE ATTACH:

- A typed letter of appeal that describes in detail the unusual circumstance that prevented you from making satisfactory academic progress and what you have done to ensure you are successful in the upcoming semester(s). Unusual circumstances can include but are not limited to death of a relative, divorce, injury, illness, etc. The level of difficulty in a course, dislike of an instructor or teaching methods used, and/or the length of time that has passed since you last attended school does NOT qualify as unusual circumstances.
- In addition to your typed statement, please provide any supporting documentation you may have from an objective third party such as a physician, counselor, lawyer, social worker, or religious leader on letterhead and signed with a wet signature. Other documents that you could submit include a copy of a death certificate, an obituary, divorce decree, etc.

FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE TIMEFRAME – Appeal for reinstatement of financial aid when you are close to or have exceeded the allowed timeframe as outlined in the Financial Aid Satisfactory Academic Progress Policy without receiving a certificate or an Associate's Degree; OR you are requesting to be considered for aid for a second certificate or degree.

PLEASE ATTACH:

- A typed letter of appeal or statement that explains why you did not accomplish a certificate or degree within the allowed timeframe, including extenuating circumstances that impacted your academic progress. Please include reason for any withdraws, repeat coursework, or change of programs.
- A copy of your PASSport signed off by your advisor, showing which semester(s) you will be completing the courses you lack. If you have course substitutions approved, please provide that documentation as well.
- If appealing for a second certificate or degree, please provide proof of an awarded certificate or Associate's Degree.
