OTHER COURSES:

- Evening classes (6 p.m. or later) will have their final exams during the last week of class during their last regular class session.
- Classes meeting once a week, one-credit hour classes, short-term, and weekend classes should also have final exams during their last regular session.

Note: The length of the examination depends on the number of credit hours of the course (one hour of exam time for each credit hour). No exam should be scheduled for more than three hours.

Any deviations from this schedule must be approved in writing by the Vice President for Instruction & Student Services.
