

2022 WINTER COURSES

For more information on these courses, contact Krutsch at 505-454-5366 or via email at rkrutsch@luna.edu

Luna Community College softball coach Randy Krutsch will be teaching two asynchronous classes for students interested in coaching and for individuals in the coaching profession during winter break.

The courses will begin on Monday, Dec. 12, 2022 and culminate on Friday, Jan. 6, 2023

HP5150

Fundamentals of Coaching

This course provides coaches an understanding of the dynamics between a coach, the individual athletes and the team.

HP5211

Coaching/Officiating Baseball/Softball

This course examines philosophy, strategy, leadership, team, and practice organization and coaching methods for baseball/softball as well as rules and mechanics of officiating baseball/softball

The asynchronous courses are open for registration at luna.edu/schedule

Information on these classes can be found under Spring 2023