

LCC ACADEMIC SNAPSHOT

Luna Community College — Office of the Vice President of Instruction — Dr. Sharon Lalla

December 2017

Faculty News

Susan Olson Retires

Susan Olson, Nursing Director, retires from LCC with over xx years of service to LCC. Her dedication to LCC students and to the health field represents a lifetime accomplishment.

We appreciate you Susan and you will be missed!

New FT Hires

Lita Bernal, Business Director

Student Advisement

A series of student advisement events are being held for those students who are planning or would like to graduate in Spring 2018. Events were held November 20 and December 6.

Additional events will be held January 8th from 10 am -noon and January 10th from Noon—2 pm.

News Bites

- School of Business personnel move to the Media Arts building in December.
- Hand-prepared meals are being served to LCC staff on Fridays by LCC's future Chefs in the Culinary program.
- Joseph Montoya Building, Trades Instructor, earns certification as a Construction Industry Outreach Trainer.
- Culinary classes restart at Springer Corrections facility in Spring 2018.
- Career Day at Springer on Nov. 30 brought x schools to the LCC Springer campus.

Have a wonderful and safe Holiday!

Goal to provide full meals to 16 families was exceeded; LCC provided Thanksgiving meals to 27 Las Vegas families.

Upcoming

- In-service week or faculty facilitated by Faculty Senate Dec. 11-15. Program assessment is the focus of this in-service week.
- Time off for some R&R with family. Thank you all and please be safe! See you next year! Dr. Lalla