

DUAL CREDIT SUCCESS CHECKLIST

Am I ready for Dual Credit?

Like anything that is worthwhile, college courses take commitment. Students will learn time management, as they will have college coursework, in addition, to high school commitments. Students will have a support system and be offered many resources.

In the end, your work will pay off with a stronger future. The Student will earn college credit and get ahead, and receive High School Credit.

What do I need to be successful?

- Be responsible. Be honest. Do your best!
- Log into or attend your class daily
- Follow your Syllabus and Course Schedule
- Meet all course deadlines
- Check email regularly
- Establish consistent study priorities
- Study daily
- Follow a career track

No excuses

- Computer labs are available in every building
- Wireless Internet all over campus
- High School is responsible for books
- Tutoring in every subject days and evenings
- Learning Resource Center has a quiet environment with many resources
