Poem About Spring

by Chat GTP

March winds are starting to calm,
The gusts are losing their charm.
April's here, let's hope for the best,
No more blustery winds to give us a test.

The kites won't fly and hats won't stay,
But soon it will all go away.

April showers bring May flowers,
Let's hope they have superpowers!

So let's say goodbye to windy March,
And welcome April with a lighthearted arch.
Let's hope for sunshine and clear skies,
And say farewell to those gusty guys!

Poem to Encourage Everyone to Share Their Stories of Accomplishment on the Weekly Update

By Chat GTP

Oh Luna faculty and staff, don't be shy
Let your accomplishments reach the sky
Toot your horns, sound them aloud
Let the world hear, let them be wowed

Share the news of all you do
Your achievements and breakthroughs
Let the campus and the world know
Of the greatness that you show

So don't hold back, don't be modest
Share your stories with pride, be honest
Let your work and your passion shine
And inspire others with your design

For Luna is a place of growth and knowledge
And your success is what makes it a college
So let us hear what you have done
And celebrate together, as one.

And one more poem...

Let Luna's faculty and staff hear this call
Share your stories, stand up tall
Let the world know of your work and care
Your accomplishments, beyond compare

Don't be afraid, don't hold back
Let your voice be heard, that's a fact
From classrooms to labs, to fields of research
Your expertise, we want to perch

So toot your horns, let them ring
Your successes, they deserve to sing
For Luna is a place of pride
Where innovation and knowledge collide

So don't be shy, don't hesitate
Speak up and let us celebrate
Your achievements, both big and small

For Luna's faculty and staff, we applaud.
