RE: Media Arts Faculty Open Position

Kenn Patterson
Maxine Hughes

In light of enrollment reductions in the AAS degree program in Media Arts and Film Technology, we will not be filling the position of Full-time Faculty in Media Arts and Film Technology at this time. The program will be suspended as the Fall Term 2020, with an adjunct serving during the teach-out phase.

We will be considering reactivation of this program within one year, after a concentrated period of re-development.
